El Che Steakhouse & Bar is a love letter to Argentina and its beloved asados, traditional backyard barbecues featuring platters of rustic flame-finished grilled meats. This is more than just grilling: It is an ethos, a passion and a way of life.

Just as we honor Argentina's asados, we're proud to share the deep history and our love for South American wine. It's our goal to curate a collection of South American wines unparalleled in the Midwest.

It's an exciting time to focus on South American wines. We believe that the heritage, tradition, innovation and artistry of viniculture in the Southern Hemisphere is fully on display here. We're thrilled to guide you through our list and hope you'll be as deeply impressed as we are.

While we love our food and wine we would be nothing without our team of professionals who have embraced our restaurant and its philosophies. Without them nothing we do would be possible. This is the El Che Team:
